

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

- "Shall I keep on sinning so that grace may increase"?

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

- "Shall I keep on sinning so that grace may increase"?
- Antinomianism.

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

- If we are proclaiming Paul's gospel with its emphasis on the freeness of grace and the impossibility of self salvation we are sure to provoke the charge of antinomianism." (John Stott)

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

1. A Christian is dead to sin.

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

1. A Christian is dead to sin.

- 'We are those who have died to sin, how can we live in it any longer' (verse 2)

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

1. A Christian is dead to sin.

- 'We are those who have died to sin, how can we live in it any longer' (verse 2)
- 'Reckon yourself dead to sin' (v 11)

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

1. A Christian is dead to sin.

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

1. A Christian is dead to sin.

- I am repulsed by my sin

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

1. A Christian is dead to sin.

- I am repulsed by my sin
- I want to make progress in killing sin in my life.

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

2. A Christian has a new Master:

"Whatever controls us is our Lord. The person who seeks power is controlled by power. The person who seeks acceptance is controlled by acceptance. We do not control ourselves. We are controlled by the Lord of our lives."

(Rebecca Manley Pippert, Out of the Saltshaker)

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

2. A Christian has a new Master:

"Your specific enslaving sins depend on whatever particular bottom line you have offered yourself to instead of God. For example", if you are enslaved to approval, you will constantly experience self pity, envy, hurt feelings and inadequacy. If you are enslaved to success, you will experience drivenness, fatigue worry and fear. . . ."

(Tim Keller, Romans for You)

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

- How are we set free day by day?

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

- How are we set free day by day?
- Worship every day (Romans 11:33-36)

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

- How are we set free day by day?
- Worship every day (Romans 11:33-36)
- Allow theology to transform your heart (Romans 6:3, 6, 9, 16)

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay

Romans 6

- How are we set free day by day?
- Worship every day (Romans 11:33-36)
- Allow theology to transform your heart (Romans 6:3, 6, 9, 16)
- Pursue growth with others (Romans 6:22)

The foreseeable
future

change that's
here to stay